

I REJOICE AT THY WORD

WHO IS THE LORD?

DIRECTIONS

In Exodus 34, as God meets Moses to renew the covenant, He says His name, describes His good character and gives a warning. This is one of the most quoted passages in Scripture. For generations to come, prophets and kings would use God's own description of Himself in their writings.

- ▶ Read the original Exodus 34 passage and observe the marked phrases.
- ▶ Go through the shaded boxes and mark each quotation with the same markings shown in the Exodus 34 passage. Some quotations may not be word for word.

EXAMPLE: Circle every instance of slow to anger

- ▶ Write an example or description of each quality:

"compassionate and gracious"

"slow to anger"

"abounding in lovingkindness and truth"

"who forgives iniquity, transgression and sin"

"He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished"

"visiting the iniquity of fathers on the children"

- ▶ Listen to Psalm 145 (Live) or Psalm 51 by Shane & Shane to hear our key verses sung.

WHO is THE LORD?

The LORD descended in the cloud and stood there with him as he called upon the name of the LORD. Then the LORD passed by in front of him and proclaimed, "The LORD, the LORD God, [compassionate and gracious,] (slow to anger,) and abounding in lovingkindness and truth; who keeps lovingkindness for thousands, <who forgives iniquity, transgression and sin,> yet He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished, (visiting the iniquity of fathers on the children & on the grandchildren to the third & fourth generations.)"

Moses made haste to bow low toward the earth and worship. He said, "If now I have found favor in Your sight, O Lord, I pray, let the Lord go along in our midst, even though the people are so obstinate, and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us as Your own possession."

Exodus 34:5-9

'The Lord is slow to anger and abundant in lovingkindness,
forgiving iniquity and transgression;
but He will by no means clear the guilty,
visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and the fourth generations.'
Numbers 14:18-19

...For I knew that You are a gracious
and compassionate God,
slow to anger
and abundant in lovingkindness, and one who relents concerning calamity.

abounding in lovingkindness;
And You did not forsake them.

For He is gracious and compassionate,
Slow to anger,
abounding in lovingkindness
and relenting of evil.
