

titles AND attributes

A _____

VERSE: _____

J _____

VERSE: _____

S _____

VERSE: _____

B _____

VERSE: _____

K _____

VERSE: _____

T _____

VERSE: _____

C _____

VERSE: _____

L _____

VERSE: _____

U _____

VERSE: _____

D _____

VERSE: _____

M _____

VERSE: _____

V _____

VERSE: _____

E _____

VERSE: _____

N _____

VERSE: _____

W _____

VERSE: _____

F _____

VERSE: _____

O _____

VERSE: _____

X _____

VERSE: _____

G _____

VERSE: _____

P _____

VERSE: _____

Y _____

VERSE: _____

H _____

VERSE: _____

Q _____

VERSE: _____

Z _____

VERSE: _____

I _____

VERSE: _____

R _____

VERSE: _____

VERSE: Matthew 1:23

Immanuel

VERSE: Psalms 32:7

Hiding Place

VERSE: Exodus 34:6

Gracious

EXAMPLES

Bless the LORD for who He is as you reflect on His character and the role He plays in your life.

You may choose to do this exercise all at once or you may elect to do one letter a day.

- Write a name, title or attribute of God for each letter of the alphabet.
- Use words directly from scripture or thoughtfully develop your own terms.
- Find a Bible verse that supports each entry.

DIRECTIONS

FEBRUARY 2020: A-Z ATTRIBUTES

I REJOICE AT THY WORD

RECOMMENDED RESOURCE

Every Moment Holy by Douglas Kaine McKelvey

A beautiful book of liturgies for the ordinary moments in life. Every Moment Holy will challenge you to maintain continual conversation with God and to consecrate even the most unremarkable parts of your day for His use and for His glory.

Every Moment Holy contains a prayer for:

- Washing Windows
- Sunsets
- Gardening
- Morning Coffee
- Waiting in Line
- Changing Diapers
- The Sound of Sirens
- Consuming Media
- Shopping
- Nightfall
- A Husband & Wife at Start of Day
- ...and 95 more

The purpose of “Rejoice at Thy Word” is to provide creative, interactive ways to draw near to God through His Word.

FOR MORE RESOURCES & ENCOURAGEMENT VISIT:
rejoiceatthyword.com